HeART Talk

Art Therapy Grief Support Group for Ages 14-17

If you are 14 - 17 years old and are looking for an inclusive, safe space to explore loss and grief then "HeART Talk" is for you.

In Art therapy, feelings and thoughts can be communicated without the use of words. Emotions can be explored in a drawing, painting, or a sculpture. They can be released onto a page or a canvas or kneaded into a piece of clay. Art-making can be soothing and calming, providing a safe outlet for relieving stress and releasing excess energy. Art therapy can also help the bereaved to celebrate positive memories by creating specific art-based pieces.

DETAILS:

In this 4-session group, participants will begin exploring their personal experience of loss by reflecting on their inner feelings, considering artful ways to cope, while finding support and encouragement from others who are sharing a similar journey.

Facilitators:

Bill Harder, Palliative and Grief Support Navigator from the Palliative Care Society of the Bow Valley and Vancouver Art Therapy Institute Student, Deanne Arada.

- Cost is $20 for supplies
- Date and time to be determined with participants

Contact Bill at bill.harderepcsbv.ca
